The meeting was organized at premises of BUCKS University at Buckinghamshire. A chairman of the meeting was Prof. Dr. Florin Ioras, the project representative of the host institution.

1. Welcome

On behalf of hosting institution, Prof. Florin Ioras welcomed the partners to the seventh ECESM consortium meeting. He presented the capacities of BUCKS University and their activities regarding cyber security education and training.

Also, Matjaž Debevc as project leader welcomed all partners by expressing the pleasure to visit Buckinghamshire area, giving thanks to all participants for active collaboration and successful project results with all respects to proposed deadlines and activity plan.

2. Recap/Overview of WP 2

Indrachapa Bandara, leader of the Work package 2, presented the work done at WP2, with finalized deliverables 2.1 and 2.2 that are ready for online publishing. He emphasized indicators describing ICT literacy in Montenegro as well as agreed approach for improvements of cyber security awareness among identified target groups. Furthermore, he pointed out that additional work should also be done considering the referencing of the reports.

Ivana Ognjanović (UNIM) representing National Board in Montenegro gave an overview of their recent National meeting where detailed actions about organizations of training (activity 2.3) and Handbook preparation (activity 2.3) were specified. The plan (see Report_2nd_National_Board_Meeting.doc) gives detailed description of selection procedure for participants, planned training events and evaluation procedure.

She also presented financial indicators about estimated costs for proposed trainings, and all participants agreed about making relocation of funds for travel costs in order to provide support for organizing large-scale training events in ME. National Board representatives will prepare detailed proposal of using funds and submit to Project Management Board for acceptance.

In addition, Indrachapa Bandara presented CISCO Cyber security Introduction Course that ME trainers will attend. All participants agreed about using curriculum of CISCO course and ECDL (European Computer Driving License) module about digital security, in order to prepare programs and materials for identified target groups.

National Board will prepare plan for expenditures needed for organizing large-scale trainings in Montenegro among identified target groups. Deadline: 10th April, 2015

Project Management Board will discuss about making relocation of funds in order to provide support for estimated costs. Deadline: 20th April, 2015

Organization of trainings will start after relocation of funds.

ACTION 2

All the partners involved in Work package 2 will send the referencing information to Indrachapa Bandara until 10th April.

ACTION 3

As soon as the additional information regarding the trainings will be provided, Simon Hauptman will implement a clear link to the participation form within the ECESM official website.

ACTION 4

The updated e-mail list from all partners will be sent to project representatives until 27th March 2015. It is proposed that the separate mailing lists are also made for different work-packages.

3. Work progress and future work for WP3

Stefano Guarino, representative of UR3, which is leading institution for WP3, presented an overview of planned activities in WP3 with proposed deadlines. After his introductory plan, intensive discussion among all participants were taken in order to identify the best suiting approach for identification of target groups in WP3 and appropriate training modules and their level of expertise and professional education.

Having in mind good support of MID in previous WP in all activities related to gathering relevant indicators about ME society and ICT literacy, Chamber of economy accepted to have key role in implementation of similar activities in WP3. They also suggested their leading role in future organization of trainings with both, communication and management as well as hosting institution, due to well recognized position in economic sector at national level.

Ana Rakočević from the Ministry of information society and telecommunications presented recent activity of the Ministry aimed on making assessments of cyber conducted by the Global Cyber Security Capacity Center of the Oxford University by using their Cyber Security Capacity Maturity Model. The results (that are expected to be publish within 6 weeks) will be beneficiary for ECESM
